By June Jones

ONE BIG PROBLEM of the modern day has now been solved:

For the couple whose minds don't run in the same channel it's best to buy two television sets and live under the same roof peacefully.

WE CAN'T RESIST passing on to both of our readers a new batch of bars from Doc Ankham, fictitious character who writes in paper trades magazine coming to our desk:

Es like never realized how hard it is to drive a bargain until he bought that second-hand car.

If it's true that women dress to express themselves, some have very little to say.

It's strange but men will drink about anything put before them, but check very carefully the oil put in their car.

Speaking of women's costumes, the end frequently does not justify the means.

Fred Fears states that Lady Golliva was just an air-conditioned Paul Revere.

Buzz Burrell claims that out to the Golf Club the other day a golfer playing behind Buzz's group asked if he could play through—said he'd just been notified that his wife was in a serious accident.

MOST OF US recognize the business abilities of our better three-quarters. But some fellow's women folks command them more than others. One fellow, Stephen Schlitzer, must be one of those, for he says in rhyme...

If it's a man's world, As some people claim, I'm perfectly sure It's in his wife's name.

PERSISTENCE is the one secret to most successes. An unknown author put it in nice words like this:

It is easy to quit. Anyone can say, "The hill is too high" or "It's too far away."

Anyone can say, "I'm too tired to keep on."

And stop halfway there. But don't be that one.

Whenever life gives you a task hard to do,

Don't stop in the middle, but see the thing through.

It is easy to quit. Any fool can explain to himself and his friends why the struggle was vain.

It doesn't take brains when you start cutting loose from a difficult task to think up an excuse.

There is always a plausible, soul-soothing excuse

on the tongue of the chap who says "It's no use."

REARING a family is one of life's most interesting experiences—and most perplexing. In other words:

The golden age of parenthood is when the children are too old for baby sitters, but too young to drive the car!

THE FELLOW who was a super salesman saw the possibilities of a Bible sale, and placed this sign in his window:

Holy scripture, writ divine, At a dollar forty-nine; Satan trembles when he sees Bibles sold as cheap as these!

Funds Available to County Farmers for Wind Erosion Projects

Funds are being provided under provision of the Agricultural Conservation Program for assistance to farmers in carrying out emergency wind erosion measures in drought areas, it is announced by Olin Potts, member of the Jones County ASC committee.

Tillage operations which may qualify for assistance are contour listing, contour chiseling, cross-slope chiseling, pit cultivation and listing or chiseling not on the contour.

It is not known at this time how much money will be available for the program or the rate of assistance to be offered, but it is expected that the assistance will amount to between 50 cents and $1 per acre.

All producers, says Potts, who plan to qualify for assistance under any of the tillage practices listed are urged to file an application at the ASC office not later than April 12.

Easter can occur any time between March 22 and April 25.

Scores of Area Students to Be Here for League Contests

Revived Contests For Area Schools Scheduled Friday

Scores of area school students are due in Hamlin Friday for the revived Interscholastic League literary contests of the district, according to school leaders. The events, which have not been conducted for several years, will be held in the Hamlin High School auditorium and various classrooms.

Students are expected to be on hand from Anna, Colorado City, Hamlin, Rotan and Stamford.

Events will include contests in arithmetic, spelling, speaking, poetry, reading, declaiming, etc.

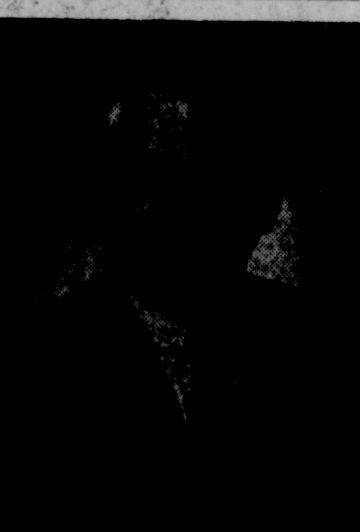

In addition to these events listed in last week's story in The Herald, there will feature Hamlin entries.

Typing contests consist of a 15-minute writing. This period is scored by the per cent of accuracy and not words typed. Elizabeth Norton, Linda Carlton and Cecelia Albritton will be entered at this section, beginning at 1:00 p. m. Friday.

The shorthand contest is a five-minute dictation at 80 words per minute with 45 minutes to transcribe this material. It is then scored on the per cent of accuracy of transcribing. Joye Cary and Marlene Crawford are entered in this event, beginning at 2:00 p. m.

Alternates in typing will be

Rev. Bill Crafton, pastor of the Trinity Baptist Church in Stamford, will be evangelist for the 10-day series of services. Singing will be directed by local musicians.

Firemen Prepare For Convention at Snyder Next Week

Members of the Hamlin Volunteer Fire Department have been practicing for several days on the contest races that are scheduled to be a feature of the semi-annual convention of the Mid-West Texas Firemen's Association convention at Snyder next Thursday.

Local teams have been in the running at races for several years in pumper and hook-up competition, and they expect to again be in the money at Snyder. The locals now possess the two-man hook-up trophy, having won it two years in a row, which, if they win again, becomes a permanent trophy.

A big delegation of Hamlin firemen and their wives is expected to attend the gathering. Races will begin at 4:30 next Thursday afternoon.

Election of officers will be a part of the business during the day. A memorial service for dead firemen is also to be conducted. The association area covers 16 Central West Texas counties.

O. D. Roland Named Mayor In Write-In on City Ballots

Most of Expense Money for Senior Trip Now Raised

Verification of the plans for the annual trip for seniors of Hamlin High School has been acknowledged, according to Mrs. Austin Poe and Jess Parrish, class sponsors.

The trip, following the plan of the past three years, will be a five-day affair to New Orleans, Louisiana, and return. The group will leave May 8 and return on May 13.

About 37 of the 50 seniors have already signed up for the trip, expenses for which will be paid from a fund that has been in the making since the start of school last fall. Approximately $2,000 is required for the trip that will be made by chartered bus, some $1,500 of which already has been raised, according to the sponsors.

Latest money raising project of the class was the annual senior play, presented last week, which netted about $500. Other projects have included sales of pennants, Christmas and personal cards, and cake sales.

In addition to the class sponsors, the graduates will be accompanied to New Orleans by the room mothers, Mmes. Holly Toler, E. A. Hewett and O. D. Roland.

REPORT ON GIRLSTOWN—John H. Winters (right), director of the State Board of Public Welfare, reads an advisory board report on Girlstown, USA, to members of the Welfare Board at Austin. Three Councilmen Renamed as 165 Ballots Are Cast

A group of voters Tuesday ousted the incumbent, Mayor Willard Jones, in a late developing write-in voting campaign that elected O. D. Roland, oil company consignee and former member of the City Council. Roland received 101 votes to 60 for Jones.

Three councilmen who were elected three years ago in spirited balloting were reelected for two-year terms with little opposition. They were L. E. (Gene) Prewitt, B. O. Bell and W. S. Seals.

The campaign to have Jones replaced was revealed late Tuesday afternoon when several citizens began contacting friends and urging them to go to the polls and scratch Jones' name from the ticket and write in Roland's.

Little interest had been shown in voting until mid-afternoon, less than 50 votes having been tabulated at 3:00 o'clock, according to J. E. Patterson, election judge. Only 165 votes were cast compared with 480 polled two years ago.

In 1954, when both Roland's and Jones' names were on the ballot, Jones defeated Roland by 348 to 132.

Prewitt received 154 votes, Bell 159 and Seals 154. Names of four others were written in to receive one vote each. They were Jim Howard King, Bill Harbert, Arlie Cassle and Charles Connally.

The four new officials will take office at the next regular meeting of the City Council on April 17, it is announced.

James D. Willeford to Preach in Meeting At Church of Christ

Plans are in the making by members of the local congregation of the Church of Christ for a gospel meeting scheduled from April 15 through 22, with James D. Willeford of Abilene doing the preaching.

For the past five years Willeford has done most of the preaching on a nation-wide radio cast known as the Herald of Truth, which is heard at various hours every Sunday over most affiliates of ABC. The program originates in Abilene and is sponsored by the Highland Church of Christ of that city and supported by many other congregations, among which is the local church.

Resuscitator Fund Nears $625 Goal

Purchase of the resuscitator machine for the Hamlin community seemed assured Wednesday as reports of contributions to the fund approached the $625 goal. It was announced by officials of the Hamlin Fire Department, under whose sponsorship the drive for funds has been conducted for the past two weeks.

Donations at last report Wednesday morning stood at $510, it was reported. Several other major gifts are anticipated to be made this week-end that will put the fund "over the top," firemen said.

The resuscitator is a machine that has been developed to give assistance to respiratory organs of the body in connection with electric shock, drowning, suffocation and related failures of the respiratory system, it is pointed out. The community has been in need of such equipment for a long time, firemen said, who decided to conduct a drive to raise funds for purchase of the machine as a community service.

When the machine is purchased the firemen will operate the equipment, which will be available for the entire area. Further contributions for the resuscitator will be accepted at the bank or by any member of the Volunteer Fire Department.

Pasture Improvements in Hamlin Area Continue Despite Ravages of Drouths

Despite dry weather in the Hamlin region, county agents of Jones, Fisher and Stonewall Counties report that pasture improvements have been going forward to help ranchers and farmers recoup some of their losses.

Drouth, in combination with lower prices for livestock and livestock products in 1955, cut profits and made good pasture management difficult in many Texas areas. But E. M. Trew, extension pasture specialist, in a year-end report said sound forage programs continued to be much more important from the profit standpoint in 1955 than in years of high prices and normal rainfall.

He said extension workers continued to emphasize the need for getting maximum livestock production from pastures. But for the state as a whole, forage produced was 24 per cent below the actual needs. On the brighter side of the picture, county agents reported that educational programs which they conducted in the counties added an estimated $35,651,228 to the value of pastures. Farmers and ranchmen stored 12 per cent more hay and bundle feed and 37.6 per cent more silage than in 1954, and the same reserves were 44 and 31 per cent respectively above those stored in 1953.

Trew said the county educational programs on pasture improvement involved the holding by county agents of 1,009 indoor meetings with more than 31,000 persons attending; 340 pasture tours attended by 16,600; the writing of 1,800 news stories and supervising 5,058 demonstrations involving approximately 8,200,000 acres. These demonstrations included permanent and temporary pastures, fertilization and rotation grazing.

In addition, county agents established 2,536 new permanent pasture demonstrations on 111,687 acres. Trew said the drouth years have made Texas livestock producers appreciate more than ever the importance of forage reserves for use when green grazing is not available.

Superintendent of Schools Points to Vital Cooperation as Session Nears End

End of the current school year is fast approaching in the Hamlin school district, Superintendent of Schools C. F. Cook reminded this week, who made the following observations about the system:

"Time has rushed by and we have so many things to do. We trust, that the people of this fine community are pleased with the results of our school program thus far. The administration and teachers have tried to give the students the information that will help them to be better students as well as better citizens. Closing of each school year is

A COMMUNITY IS NO GREATER THAN ITS LEADERS

Did you ever notice that when you find a friendly, prosperous and up-to-and-going place of business, you find behind that concern a man who has the same traits of character and business ability that are reflected in that business and its relationships to its patrons? If the owner or manager is on his toes, keeps up with modern merchandising trends, sees that good service and courtesy are maintained in his organization, then that business is remembered for the way it treats its patrons and makes them want to go back there again and again.

A community is the same way. A community cannot be anything but a reflection of its leadership. Only to the extent that the citizens—and especially the leaders—work for their community, boost it, defend it, praise and back up their fellow citizens by cooperation, support and boosting—can that community grow and make good impressions upon those who come in contact with it.

We wish scores more of Hamlin community's leaders and business men could have heard the kind but scorching words which the speaker at the annual Abilene Chamber of Commerce banquet the other evening delivered to nearly 1,000 people. He made his listener feel that he had a very definite responsibility to his community—which he has, whether he shoulders that responsibility or not.

The speaker went on to declare that our attitudes of boosting one another definitely are reflected in the growth and wholesomeness and lasting impressions of our community. Seeds of optimism, community pride and helpfulness blossom into a flourishing, progressive and growing community.

And those community leaders who have in the past worked hard for the area in which they live cannot afford to let up, with the thought or assertion that "I've had my stint of community service; let some other, younger fellows take over now." The old-timers and new-timers must work together if our community is to maintain its leadership as a bustling, friendly, optimistic community such as it has gained in the recent past.

By the same manner that a community spirit of optimism breeds growth, friendliness and cooperation, so does the opposite attitude of gloom, back-biting, criticism of others and lack of teamwork work to the detriment of the community.

Yes, a community is no better than its leadership!

Who Is Hit Hardest?

The federal income tax begins at 20 per cent, on the lowest taxable incomes. From there on it rises until it reaches 91 per cent in the high brackets.

You might logically judge from this that people of large means, because of the progressive taxation, pay most of the tax bill. But they don't. Eighty-four per cent of all individual income taxes collected comes from the basic 20 per cent rate, and only 16 per cent from the sur-taxes. As Graham Patterson put it in Town Journal, "So the high rates are actually more destructive of income than productive of revenue."

Excessively costly government hits everyone—and it hits the people of moderate means hardest. There are not enough rich people to carry the load.

Through 1,062 Eyes

There are 531 members of Congress and they meet every year. "But every fourth year," Economic Intelligence observes, "a transformation takes place. All eyes—1,062 of them—turn toward November. Subjects for debate are determined, not by their bearing on the national interest, but by their capacity to get and hold votes."

The public should keep this election year transformation in mind—especially when one side attempts to persuade us that the other side is made up of nefarious characters intent on selling the nation down the river to greedy special interests.

Do You Like Your Job?

We all know people who are constantly complaining of their lot, particularly as to the occupation they happen to be following. It seems that they are forever of the opinion that the other fellow has the better job. And this is not confined to men and boys. Girls and women are also afflicted.

It is quite common to hear of a housewife in a comfortable home saying that house work is nothing but a drudge, and that she would sooner be employed in an office or store, while many of those thus employed envy the life of the wife.

Someone said, "The secret of life is not to do what one likes to do, but try to like what one has to do." None gets just what he wants, but he can have what he likes if he likes what he has.

An Analogy

Patriotism stands in national matters as love of family does in private life. Nationalism corresponds to the love a man bears for his wife and children. Internationalism corresponds to the feeling he has for his neighbors generally. The sound nationalist is the only type of really helpful internationalist—precisely as in private relations it is the man most devoted to his wife and children who in the long run is apt to be the most satisfactory neighbor.—Theodore Roosevelt.

We feel that labor unions have served useful purposes in the past. However, if they are to continue to serve the best interests of the people, labor leaders must realize that restrictive tactics and "feather bedding" produce not more jobs, but fewer jobs in this age of mass production, pre-fabrication and automation.—Covington, Tennessee, Leader.

Editorial of the Week

KHRUSHCHEV TELLS THE WORLD

The Khrushchev speech to the Community party Congress provides a most timely service for the free world, including cold war neutrals as well as the Western alliance. No one else could have done that service better. No non-Russian, nor any other Russian, could have spoken with such authority about Soviet aims.

It will be well to believe that Nikita S. Khrushchev, head of the Soviet Communist party and now clearly top man in the Kremlin, means what he says.

And what is this? Simply, starkly, that the Soviet Union will use international communism to destroy other nations' ways of life and government throughout the free world, allied or neutral. Foreign aid programs, trade, disarmament—these are all subservient considerations in Soviet foreign policy. Subservient to that is, to a central objective that amounts to aggression short only of major war.

Co-existence as Mr. Khrushchev spells it is not an end, but a means to an end. The end is the omni-existence of Communist dictatorship and the non-existence of any other form of government.

The Soviet Union, he has told the Communist party meeting, is now strong enough to achieve this aim without war. But the aim is as fixed as ever. The atom may have produced an East-West military stalemate. But it does not, in Mr. Khrushchev's plan, prevent communism from infiltrating free world politics.—The Christian Science Monitor.

Goings-on in the Hamlin community 10 years ago included the following items of interest, reproduced from the issue of The Hamlin Herald dated April 5, 1946:

Five candidates are seeking the seat of Sam Russell of Stephenville in Congress. They are William Blanton of Albany, Ted Miles of Stamford, Omar Burleson of Anson, Bob Wagstaff of Abilene and Robert R. Herring of Breckenridge.

Lewis Blair of Dundee will furnish the wild and woolly stock for the two-day rodeo slated this week-end at Hamlin. More than $1,000 in cash prizes will be given to winners in the various events, according to promoters.

Stonewall County remained in the dry column as far as drinks are concerned, when voters of the county to the north cast 402 votes for the sale of beer and 618 against in spirited balloting Saturday.

Keith Louise Jobe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Jobe of Wilson, and Durwood Dean Witt, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Witt, were married Sunday in services at Ropesville.

FIVE YEARS AGO.

Among news items of interest in the Hamlin community five years ago were the following, reprinted from the issue of The Hamlin Herald dated March 31, 1951:

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Redus of Pampa spent the Easter holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Redus.

A Dollar Day trade stimulator is being sponsored soon by the Hamlin Chamber of Commerce, according to directors of the civic organization.

No opposition for reelection of three trustees to the board of Hamlin School District has developed. Slated for reelection in the Saturday voting are Edward Dodd, LaFoy Patterson and Eddie Jay.

ONE YEAR AGO.

Considered news one year ago in the Hamlin community were the following briefs, taken from the issue of The Hamlin Herald dated April 8, 1955:

Issuing of car licenses for the Hamlin area is lagging, says Jim Howard King, deputy in Hamlin.

Hammitt Atiya, 18-year-old oil field worker of Seminole, Oklahoma, was killed instantly in a well drilling accident on the Frank Steele place, 14 miles west of Hamlin, about 5:30 o'clock Monday afternoon.

Twenty-nine blocks of street paving has been completed or is under construction in the current program being sponsored by the City of Hamlin.

Cut-Back in Pig Production Improves Outlook for Better Stock Market Prices

Very few of the top meat type hogs were included in Monday's offering at Fort Worth, making it difficult for salesmen to press for a higher market despite the smaller runs around the market circle, declares Ted Gouldy, special market reporter for The Herald, in his weekly release. His release continues:

Prices were fully steady to strong, and top meat type butchers scored $15 to $15.25; with less desirable weights and grades $12 to $14.50; and butcher pigs at $10 to $11. Sows drew $9 to $12. Stags sold at $5 to $6.

Farmers in the Corn Belt states are reported cutting back pig production more than earlier intentions. This helps the price outlook for the year ahead. A special U. S. Department of Agriculture March 1 survey indicates a spring pig crop seven per cent under a year ago. This compares with the December estimate of a drop of four per cent in spring pigs.

Fat steers and yearlings were steady to strong at Fort Worth, some yearlings and heifers selling better again. Seasonal improvement in fat cattle is being helped by continuance of tapering off of supplies in the North. Cows ruled steady. Fat calves were steady to stronger.

Stockers are feeling the pinch of the dry weather, thin kinds with quality are steady. Others are tending lower. Corn Belt outlets are still bearish in view of the losses during the past feeding season.

Comparative prices included: Fed steers and yearlings, good to choice, $16 to $19; heifers, $17.50 down; plain to medium yearlings, $12 to $15.50; fat cows, $11.50 to $13, some heiferish kinds higher; canners and cutters, $7.50 to $11.50; bulls, $10 to $14.50, few higher; good and choice slaughter calves, $16 to $20.50. Cull to medium sorts netted $11 to $15; stocker steer calves, $10 down, light yearlings, $18.50 down; heavier yearlings, $17 down; stocker cows, $9 to $13.

Glen Tole, secretary of Texas Aberdeen-Angus Association, and Henry Elder, secretary of Texas Hereford Association, report considerable interest in the April 13 stocker cows and pairs distribution sale slated for the Fort Worth stockyards. They say buying and selling interest are about equally divided.

Salesmen at the market will price or sell the animals either by the dollars per head or sell them by the pound, whichever way the seller or the buyer wants.

Church of Christ Plant Being Redecorated

A redecorating and modernization program costing approximately $3,500 is being completed at the Hamlin Church of Christ, according to church leaders.

Included in the refurbishing project are redecoration of the main auditorium of the church, carpeting of aisles and pulpit, redecorating of all Bible School classrooms and addition of modern classroom furniture.

It done. In the event they are sold by the head or by the dollar, the cattle will cross the sales for purposes of making a verified count and no weight will be stamped on the scale ticket.

RECALLING Other Years

★ Being news items taken from old files of Your Home - Town Newspaper, The Herald.

TWENTY YEARS AGO.

From the files of The Hamlin Herald are taken the following items of interest of 20 years ago, being reprinted from the issue of April 3, 1936:

Final figures for the 1935-36 cotton crop show Jones County was second high producing county in the state. Nueces County led with 88,083 bales, and Jones County was second with 67,790 bales. Following were McLennan, Navarro and Ellis Counties.

Some people get tired when they see others work.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan J. Payne of Roswell, New Mexico, were here Sunday to visit his mother, Mrs. D. J. Payne.

Jack Bryan Farrow of Hamlin has been accepted for duty with the Navy, according to a release from the San Diego, California, Navy base.

Harold Lloyd is featured in "The Milky Way" at the Ferguson Theater.

Mary Emily Eakins was hostess to the Sub-Deb Club Wednesday afternoon at her home. Present were Lois Ellen Stell, Mary Dell Parks, Virginia Sue Flowers, Mattie Wilkerson, Phyllis Milsap, Fay LaVerne Howard, Constance Teague and Marie Akers.

Mmes. J. Frank Johnson, W. R. Calhoun, Tate and Dewey Gildon went to Seymour Wednesday to attend the meeting of the First District of Texas Federated Women's Club.

TEN YEARS AGO.

Goings-on in the Hamlin community 10 years ago included the following items of interest, reproduced from the issue of The Hamlin Herald dated April 5, 1946:

Five candidates are seeking the seat of Sam Russell of Stephenville in Congress. They are William Blanton of Albany, Ted Miles of Stamford, Omar Burleson of Anson, Bob Wagstaff of Abilene and Robert R. Herring of Breckenridge.

Lewis Blair of Dundee will furnish the wild and woolly stock for the two-day rodeo slated this week-end at Hamlin. More than $1,000 in cash prizes will be given to winners in the various events, according to promoters.

Stonewall County remained in the dry column as far as drinks are concerned, when voters of the county to the north cast 402 votes for the sale of beer and 618 against in spirited balloting Saturday.

Keith Louise Jobe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Jobe of Willson, and Durwood Dean Witt, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Witt, were married Sunday in services at Ropesville.

FIVE YEARS AGO.

Among news items of interest in the Hamlin community five years ago were the following, reprinted from the issue of The Hamlin Herald dated March 31, 1951:

Mr. and Mrs. Eader Redus of Mampa spent the Easter holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Redus.

A Dollar Day trade stimulator is being sponsored soon by the Hamlin Chamber of Commerce, according to directors of the civic organization.

New Hamlin Drive-In Theater was formally opened Thursday at the south Hamlin city limits. The new showhouse was constructed by Mrs. B. S. Ferguson, owner of the other two theaters of the city.

Members of the Hamlin High School track and field team will defend their Brady Relays cup, which the local crew has won two years in a row, when the group goes this week to the event in the Central Texas competition.

No opposition for reelection of three trustees to the board of Hamlin School District has developed. Slated for reelection in the Saturday voting are Edward Dodd, LaFoy Patterson and Eddie Jay.

ONE YEAR AGO.

Considered news one year ago in the Hamlin community were the following briefs, taken from the issue of The Hamlin Herald dated April 8, 1955:

Issuing of car licenses for the Hamlin area is lagging, says Jim Howard King, deputy in Hamlin. Hammit Attya, 18-year-old oil field worker of Seminole, Oklahoma, was killed instantly in a well drilling accident on the Frank Steele place, 14 miles west of Hamlin, about 5:30 o'clock Monday afternoon.

Twenty-nine blocks of street paving has been completed or is under construction in the current program being sponsored by the City of Hamlin.

Cut-Back in Pig Production Improves Outlook for Better Stock Market Prices

Very few of the top meat type hogs were included in Monday's offering at Fort Worth, making it difficult for salesmen to press for a higher market despite the smaller runs around the market circle, declares Ted Gouldy, special market reporter for The Herald, in his weekly release. His release continues:

Prices were fully steady to strong, and top meat type butchers scored $15 to $15.25; with less desirable weights and grades $12 to $14.50; and butcher pigs at $10 to $11. Sows drew $9 to $12. Stags sold at $5 to $6.

Farmers in the Corn Belt states are reported cutting back pig production more than earlier intentions. This helps the price outlook for the year ahead. A special U. S. Department of Agriculture March 1 survey indicates a spring pig crop seven per cent under a year ago. This compares with the December estimate of a drop of four per cent in spring pigs.

Fat steers and yearlings were steady to strong at Fort Worth. Some yearlings and heifers selling better again. Seasonal improvement in fat cattle is being helped by continuance of tapering off of supplies in the North. Cows ruled steady. Fat calves were steady to stronger.

Stockers are feeling the pinch of the dry weather, thin kinds with quality are steady. Others are tending lower. Corn Belt outlets are still bearish in view of the losses during the past feeding season.

Comparative prices included: Fed steers and yearlings, good to choice, $16 to $19; heifers, $17.50 down; plain to medium yearlings, $12 to $13.50; fat cows, $11.50 to $13, some heiferish kinds higher; canners and cutters, $7.50 to $11.50; bulls, $10 to $14.50, few higher; good and choice slaughter calves, $16 to $20.50. Cull to medium sorts netted $11 to $15; stocker steer calves, $10 down; light yearlings, $18.50 down; heavier yearlings, $17 down; stocker cows, $9 to $13.

Glen Tole, secretary of Texas Aberdeen-Angus Association, and Henry Elder, secretary of Texas Hereford Association, report considerable interest in the April 13 stocker cows and pairs distribution sale slated for the Fort Worth stockyards. They say buying and selling interest are about equally divided.

Salesmen at the market will price or sell the animals either by the dollars per head or sell them by the pound, whichever way the seller or the buyer wants.

Church of Christ Plant Being Redecorated

A redecorating and modernization program costing approximately $3,500 is being completed at the Hamlin Church of Christ, according to church leaders.

Included in the refurbishing project are redecoration of the main auditorium of the church, carpeting of aisles and pulpit, redecorating of all Bible School classrooms and addition of modern classroom furniture.

It done. In the event they are sold by the head or by the dollar, the cattle will cross the sales for purposes of making a verified count and no weight will be stamped on the scale ticket.

RED CROSS SCOPE IS WIDE.
Last year through its international relations office, the American Red Cross rushed aid to 11 foreign countries which suffered great devastation from flood, hurricane or fire.

ROBY

ROBY, TEXAS

A COMMUNITY IS NO GREATER THAN ITS LEADERS

Did you ever notice that when you find a friendly, prosperous and up-to-and-going place of business, you find behind that concern a man who has the same traits of character and business ability that are reflected in that business and its relationships to its patrons?

If the owner or manager is on his toes, keeps up with modern merchandising trends, sees that good service and courtesy are maintained in his organization, then that business is remembered for the way it treats its patrons and makes them want to go back there again and again.

A community is the same way. A community cannot be anything but a reflection of its leadership. Only to the extent that the citizens—and especially the leaders—work for their community, boost it, defend it, praise and back up their fellow citizens by cooperation, support and boosting—can that community grow and make good impressions upon those who come in contact with it.

We wish scores more of Hamlin community's leaders and business men could have heard the kind but scorching words which the speaker at the annual Abilene Chamber of Commerce banquet the other evening delivered to nearly 1,000 people. He made his listener feel that he had a very definite responsibility to his community—which he has, whether he shoulders that responsibility or not.

The speaker went on to declare that our attitudes of boosting one another definitely are reflected in the growth and wholesomeness and lasting impressions of our community. Seeds of optimism, community pride and helpfulness blossom into a flourishing, progressive and growing community.

And those community leaders who have in the past worked hard for the area in which they live cannot afford to let up, with the thought or assertion that "I've had my stint of community service; let some other, younger fellows take over now." The old-timers and new-timers must work together if our community is to maintain its leadership as a bustling, friendly, optimistic community such as it has gained in the recent past.

By the same manner that a community spirit of optimism breeds growth, friendliness and cooperation, so does the opposite attitude of gloom, back-biting, criticism of others and lack of teamwork work to the detriment of the community.

Yes, a community is no better than its leadership!

Who Is Hit Hardest?

The federal income tax begins at 20 per cent, on the lowest taxable incomes. From there on it rises until it reaches 91 per cent in the high brackets.

You might logically judge from this that the people of large means, because of the progressive taxation, pay most of the tax bill. But they don't. Eighty-four per cent of all individual income taxes collected comes from the basic 20 per cent rate, and only 16 per cent from the sur-taxes. As Graham Patterson put it in Town Journal, "So the high rates are actually more destructive of income than productive of revenue."

Excessively costly government hits everyone—and it hits the people of moderate means hardest. There are not enough rich people to carry the load.

Through 1,062 Eyes

There are 531 members of Congress and they meet every year. "But every fourth year," Economic Intelligence observes, "a transformation takes place. All eyes—1,062 of them—turn toward November. Subjects for debate are determined, not by their bearing on the national interest, but by their capacity to get and hold votes."

The public should keep this election year transformation in mind—especially when one side attempts to persuade us that the other side is made up of nefarious characters intent on selling the nation down the river to greedy special interests.

Do You Like Your Job?

We all know people who are constantly complaining of their lot, particularly as to the occupation they happen to be following. It seems that they are forever of the opinion that the other fellow has the better job. And this is not confined to men and boys. Girls and women are also afflicted.

It is quite common to hear of a housewife in a comfortable home saying that house work is nothing but a drudge, and that she would sooner be employed in an office or store, while many of those thus employed envy the life of the wife.

Someone said, "The secret of life is not to do what one likes to do, but try to like what one has to do." None gets just what he wants, but he can have what he likes if he likes what he has.

An Analogy

Patriotism stands in national matters as love of family does in private life. Nationalism corresponds to the love a man bears for his wife and children. Internationalism corresponds to the feeling he has for his neighbors generally. The sound nationalist is the only type of really helpful internationalist—precisely as in private relations it is the man most devoted to his wife and children who in the long run is apt to be the most satisfactory neighbor.—Theodore Roosevelt.

We feel that labor unions have served useful purposes in the past. However, if they are to continue to serve the best interests of the people, labor leaders must realize that restrictive tactics and "feather bedding" produce not more jobs, but fewer jobs in this age of mass production, pre-fabrication and automation.—Covington, Tennessee, Leader.

Editorial of the Week

KHRUSHCHEV TELLS THE WORLD

The Khrushchev speech to the Community party Congress provides a most timely service for the free world, including cold war neutrals as well as the Western alliance. No one else could have done that service better. No non-Russian, nor any other Russian, could have spoken with such authority about Soviet aims.

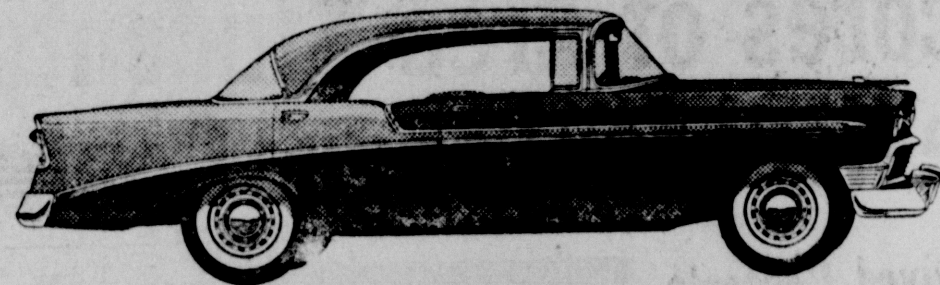

It will be well to believe that Nikita S. Khrushchev, head of the Soviet Communist party and now clearly top man in the Kremlin, means what he says.

And what is this? Simply, starkly, that the Soviet Union will use international communism to destroy other nations' ways of life and government throughout the free world, allied or neutral. Foreign aid programs, trade, disarmament—these are all subservient considerations in Soviet foreign policy. Subservient that is, to a central objective that amounts to aggression short only of major war.

Co-existence as Mr. Khrushchev spells it is not an end, but a means to an end. The end is the omni-existence of Communist dictatorship and the non-existence of any other form of government.

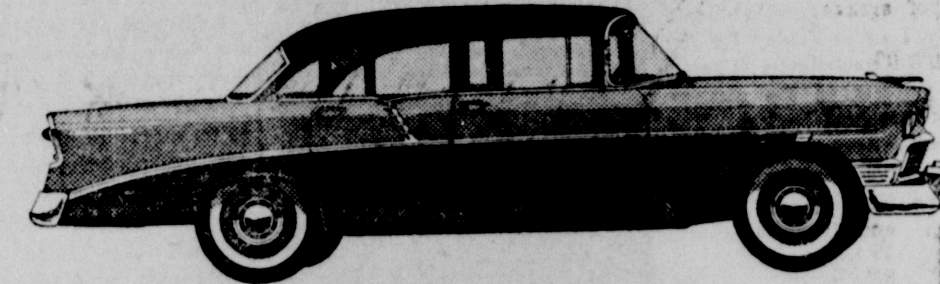

The Soviet Union, he has told the Communist party meeting, is now strong enough to achieve this aim without war. But the aim is as fixed as ever. The atom may have produced an East-West military stalemate. But it does not, in Mr. Khrushchev's plan, prevent communism from infiltrating free world politics.—The Christian Science Monitor.

Mrs. Brad Rowland Sr. Speaks to Methodist Women at Brunch

Mrs. Brad Rowland Sr. was the guest speaker for the Bonnie Methodist Church Women's Society of Christian Service when the group met Tuesday morning in the ranch home of Mrs. W. F. Martin.

Mrs. Rowland reviewed "Gift from the Sea" by Anne Morrow Lindbergh. Mrs. Lindbergh relates in her book that everyone has problems, and the solitude of being alone by the sea helped her to solve hers, and she decided to share that gift of the sea with others. She said solitude could be the salvation of one, your family and perhaps civilization. The book is an answer to the conflicts in people's lives.

Mrs. Richard Young, circle chairman, presided for a short business session. Opening prayer was given by Mrs. L. H. McBride. The circle voted to present life memberships to Velma Rowland and Jeri Ann Waggoner and one adult life membership to Mrs. Jack Richey.

Amanda Freeman Pledges Tech Sorority

Amanda Freeman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Freeman of Hamlin, who is a sophomore student at Texas Technological College at Lubbock, is pledging Phi Gamma Nu, honorary national business sorority at Tech.

After completing her nine-week pledging, Miss Freeman will be initiated at a formal initiation service.

Two More Home Demonstration Clubs In County Securing Meeting Places

Programs given last month in the Home Demonstration Clubs of the area were on "Low Calorie Refreshments" and "Jury Service." It was reported when the Jones County Home Demonstration Council met in regular session March 21 in the home demonstration agent's office at Anson. The meeting was called to order by the chairman, Mrs. Noel Weaver of Neinda. Mrs. H. H. Windham acted as secretary in the absence of Mrs. Noel Baize.

Two clubs reported having obtained buildings to be used as club houses. Friendly Circle reported that the Anderson Chapel church was given to be used as a club house and community center. Stith reported a building was moved which will be used as a club house and community center.

Jimmie Lou Waincott, the agent, reported she will have entries in the public speaking and dairy foods contests in the district 4-H Club meet, to be held at Wichita Falls. She also reported she has organized two new 4-H Clubs in the county.

The council voted to have a book review in Anson on May 3 in observance of National Home Demonstration Week, which is from April 30 to May 5.

"Hot Flashes Stopped" or strikingly relieved

In 63-80% of cases in doctors' tests • If you're miserable from the "hot flashes," and accompanying irritable, restless feelings of "change of life," you may be suffering unnecessarily!

• For... in tests by doctors... Lydia Pinkham's Compound and Tablets brought relief from such functionally-caused suffering to 63% and 80% (respectively) of the women tested! Complete or striking relief!

Yes! Research has proved these medicines thoroughly modern in action... has shown you where to look for relief from those distressing, nervous, "out of sorts" feelings of mid-life "change!"

So... get Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—or new, improved tablets with added iron! (Wonderful too for the functional pains of menstrual periods.)

It acts through a woman's sympathetic nervous system to relieve distress of these awful "hot waves!"

State Capitol NEWS

By Vern Sanford, Manager, Texas Press Association.

Austin.—Battle lines are fast forming. The scrap for control of the Texas delegation to the Democratic national convention is a high tension argument. Harmony is out. Now it's a no-holds-barred, toe-to-toe slugfest.

It started when House Speaker Sam Rayburn, leader of Texas liberal-loyalist forces and godfather of the Democratic advisory council, proposed that U. S. Senator Lyndon Johnson be Texas' favorite son candidate for president of the United States . . . and head the Texas delegation to the nominating convention in Chicago.

George W. Candlin, chairman of the Democratic state executive committee, had proposed Governor Allan Shivers as chairman. Shivers charged that Byron Skelton, chairman of the DAC, had thought up the favorite son and chairman idea . . . and that Rayburn "is just his mouthpiece."

Shivers denounced Rayburn's proposal as "a cynical and calculated effort to divide the conservative Democrats of Texas . . . an attempt to maneuver the senator into the DAC-PAC camp."

Then he challenged Johnson to denounce liberal-loyalist backing and take a stand for states' rights. Johnson's answer was that he would head only a middle-of-the-road delegation. Not only "from either fringe"—either ultra-conservative or ultra-liberal.

"No one knows better than Allan Shivers that I am not a creature of the ADA, DAC, PAC, NAACP, CIO or any other group

he may have named," snapped Johnson. "Nor am I an errand boy of reactionary big business or the Republican party."

Verbal blasts between Washington and Austin continued. Shivers accused Rayburn of "trying to run Texas from Washington." Rayburn termed Shivers "an angry, confused, frustrated man . . . on a sinking ship." Adding "I belong to no faction but the Democratic party."

Shivers replied that had he gotten in the boat with Rayburn and Adlai Stevenson in 1952, "we would have lost both the boat and the tides." He charged Rayburn with "being a Democrat first and an American second."

Shivers declared he will not pledge himself to support "any nominee," and will hold himself free to vote for the man he considers best for president regardless of party . . . "and I hope it is a Democrat."

Fencing between Johnson and Shivers was in milder tones, with Shivers concluding that he had no desire to battle with "my old friend, Lyndon Johnson." Without withdrawing his demand for Johnson to state his position on the issues, Shivers said "I would not stand in the way of Texas honoring him as chairman of the delegation or as favorite son."

Johnson has not said whether he would permit his name to be presented as a favorite son candidate, or whether he would take the chairmanship. He has said, however, that he hopes to be a delegate.

All of which means a showdown fight for control of the Democratic state convention in

STRICTLY BUSINESS

by McFatters

Dallas, set for May 22. Liberals have promised a contest there . . . and if they lose they will attempt to bar the conservatives from the national convention. Rayburn will be temporary chairman of the national convention.

Complying with Governor Shivers' request, the Democratic state executive committee has ordered on the July ballot a referendum on "interposition." This seeks a voters' mandate for the Texas Legislature to petition Congress for a constitutional amendment re-establishing and protecting states' rights.

It is an attack on U. S. Supreme Court decisions, such as the tides, school segregation, federal control over natural gas, etc. which Texas conservatives have branded as an unauthorized invasion of states' rights.

C. T. Johnson, who testified five times under oath that he had spent "no more and no less" than $125 in traveling the length and breadth of Texas while campaigning for lieutenant governor in 1954, now admits spending $1,200 more than he reported.

This exposure resulted from charges by Russell W. Bryant, Italy publisher, that Johnson could not have traveled an admitted 12,000 to 15,000 miles for $125 (or approximately one cent a mile). "There isn't a standard make automobile made that doesn't cost nearly two cents a mile for gas alone," said Bryant. "And Johnson testified under oath that the $125 included not only gas, oil, tires, batteries, etc., but also such other necessary travel expenses as lodging and meals."

In admitting the $1,200 additional expenditure Johnson stated that he did not report any expenses under $10. State laws require the reporting of all expenditures, and the names and addresses of persons with whom more than $10 is spent.

Falsification of a campaign expense report prohibits such candidate's name from appearing on the ballot at any succeeding election.

A down-to-earth intensified campaign for governor now is underway by Austin Attorney Ralph W. Yarborough.

His first official move was a cross-roads plea for contributions and support "from the common people who believe in the democratic form of government."

Ads appear this week in weekly newspapers throughout Texas soliciting one dollar or more from small town contributors. It's a "Dollars for Democracy" appeal.

Church of Christ Seeks Minister for Hamlin

Efforts are being made to secure the services of a full-time minister for the Hamlin Church of Christ, leaders of the congregation told The Herald this week. For the past several months the church has had Edward M. Brown, graduate student at Abilene Christian College, working with the church. Even though he commutes back and forth from Abilene, much progress has been made in every phase of the local work, declare members of the congregation.

Nazarene Minister Quartet Presents Rotary Program

Seven male quartet members by the Evangelists Quartet provided the program for the weekly regular luncheon meeting of Hamlin Rotary Club last Wednesday at the oil mill guest house.

The singing group is made up of ministers of Churches of the Nazarene of West Texas, who were being featured in youth revival services at the local Church of the Nazarene last week. They are George Andrews of Sweetwater, Darrell Moore of Abilene, Bill Anderson of Littlefield and Donald Wellman of Hamlin.

The group sang "Rock My Soul in the Bosom of Abraham," "All That Thrills My Soul Is Jesus," "I'm Satisfied With Jesus," "Redeemed: How I Love to Proclaim It," "Shine on Me," "The Old Time Preacher Man" and "My Wonderful Lord."

Besides the singers, other guests at the Wednesday luncheon included W. M. Blackburn of Stamford; George S. Cowan and Peter Fox of Sweetwater, Tage Adolfs-son of Stockholm, Sweden; and Rev. Darris Egger of Hamlin. Ted Wright was recognized as Junior Rotarian for the day.

If Government Could Cash In Holdings It Could Balance Budget, Burleson Says

writes Congressman Omar Burleson in his regular weekly news letter "Washington from Here." He continues:

Ordinarily, we conclude that, if an individual or a corporation can balance its books, it is solvent. Counting this $208,000,000,000 in property, the federal government could easily balance its assets against the public debt. This, of course, is only theoretical.

Even supposing the government could theoretically liquidate its holdings, its values are somewhat in question.

The House administration committee, on which I have the honor to serve as chairman, is trying its best to reduce the tremendous printing bill which the government incurs each year. The printing bill of the United States has been running near $250,000,000 annually. There are 180,000 different government forms in use. It has been found that literally thousands have become obsolete, and some were out of date immediately after they were printed.

Every time Congress passes any new law, or the president issues an executive order, there follows hundreds and thousands of forms related to it.

A farm for a veteran may want to know whether his wife is left-handed or right, and then it is decided the information is not sufficient and another form is produced.

In addition to all these forms which are many times harassing to businessmen and others, there are thousands of publications stored in numerous places, which are as useless as anything could be. There are books and publications in storage rooms in the bowels of the capitol that no one knows what they are or how long they have been there. Some of them are stacked so high that no one knows what is behind them, but yet the government continues to publish more and add to the volume of useless material.

My committee is trying to determine what is absolutely useless and dispose of it, and more than that, we will attempt to reduce the production of these useless publications and materials to the minimum. The government has the largest printing establishment in the world and it likely will continue, but there is no need for it to spend $250,000,000 a year for the purpose. It reminds me of the story of the little boy with the magic salt machine. You remember he turned it on, but did not know how to turn it off, and hence the reason for the salt water in the oceans.

A conversation between two scientists overheard in the congressional library the other day: "They talk about the discrimination of man against man. Why don't they talk about the discrimination of nature against man?" "Like what?" the second one asked.

"We should have four seasons on each of the five continents." "How are we going to get it?" "Adjust the earth on its axis. Archimedes said that with a fulcrum he could move the world." "Then maybe with four seasons on each continent, or with our ability to adjust the earth's line of spin, we will have fewer wars, fewer depressions, and less havoc wrought by nature's discrimination against man?"

"Yes," replied the other, "that would mean for each of us longer life with less pain, a life lived more creatively and with less waste."

Were these gentlemen trying to make proper use of the modern world and all its opportunities, or were they waiting for the man with the butterfly net?

Role of Oil Firms Revealed in Film Shown for Lions

"It Never Rains Oil" was the title of an informative and entertaining colored motion picture on oil development that was shown at the Tuesday noon luncheon of Hamlin Lions Club at the oil mill guest house. The film was supplied by the General Crude Oil Company through Joe League, local manager of the concern's gathering system.

Bringing the film from Houston was P. J. Ewald, personnel and safety director of General Crude's Houston office.

The film gave in graphic form the part which oil is playing in today's every-day economy, showing that hundreds of household articles are made from oil, in addition to the uses of the products for fuel and lubrication.

The big chances oil companies take in drilling for oil were revealed by figures that showed only one out of nine wells drilled finds oil; one out of 44 wells drilled breaks even; and one out of 991 is big paying. The role of taxpaying by the oil industry also was emphasized by the picture.

Lions President Bill Seals announced that a nominating committee for suggesting a slate of new officers for the year beginning July 1 has been named.

A committee from the club to work with the Little League was appointed to include Henry Albritton, John Lea, Harold Bonner, George Campbell, Charles Lovell and L. H. McBride.

Information on the international convention, to be held at Miami, Florida, in June, was distributed. Probably several from the local club will make the cruise from Galveston to Miami to the session.

Besides Ewald, other guests at the Tuesday luncheon included John Richardson of Dallas and Harry Carmichael of Anson.

Estimated 180 from County Join Armed Forces During 1955

Around 180 Jones County young men and women entered the armed forces in 1955, it has been estimated.

A total of 46,545 Texans entered military service in 1955, the records at state selective service headquarters at Austin show.

While these Texans were donning uniforms, a total of 54,499 was separated from active service, Lieutenant Colonel Morris S. Schwartz, state selective service director, pointed out.

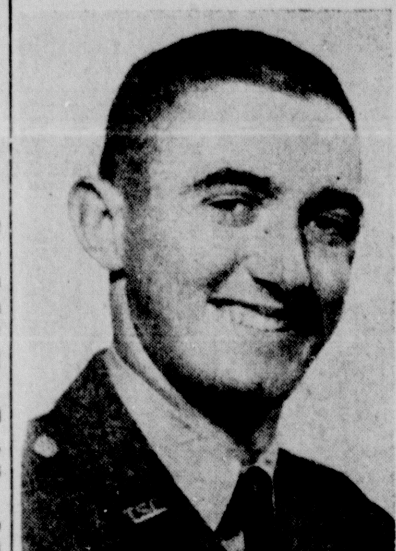

"Nearly 8,000 more got out than went in," Colonel Schwartz said, "a reflection of the reduction in strength of the military services during 1955."

Of the 46,545 Texans who went into military service 38,591 went in by enlistment or other voluntary means. The remainder, 7,954, entered service through the draft boards. Nearly all those entering through the draft went into the Army. Only a few inductees went into the Navy, all in the month of November.

Texas' 137 draft boards forwarded 6,946 men during 1955 for pre-induction physical and mental examinations. Of this number, 4,200 were found acceptable for service, and the remainder, 2,746, were found unacceptable.

"This means that almost four out of every 10 men examined during the year were turned down for military service," Colonel Schwartz pointed out.

When a draft board registrant is given the examination, he returns home to await his call for service if he passes the test. If he fails it, he is classified 4-F.

MADE SERGEANT—Recently earning his sergeant's stripes at Tarleton State College was Jack Drummond (above), son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Drummond of Hamlin. A 1955 graduate of Hamlin High School, Jack entered Tarleton last September. He is a member of the Walnut Ridge Rifle Corps, which was given highest rating in the state last year. He also is a member of the honor guard.

NEW LIFE

So many things develop from within, and so do we. The chick comes out of the egg, the flower from a tiny seed, the tree adds rings year after year to its outer core. Always it is the inner life.

And so it is with the heart of man. When the inner man is fed by God's Holy Word, the outer life becomes a joyful expression, a vital power that overcomes all obstacles and sweeps on to eternal life.

The Church nourishes the inner life of spirit so essential to outer growth and beautiful expression. From the Church comes the instruction and inspiration for happy, worthwhile living. Attend some church regularly, and see what a difference it makes.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

None from Hamlin Named to All-Area Star Cage Teams

Stephenville Only School to Place Two on Selections

Stephenville High School was the only school placing two men in the all-area Class AA basketball first and second teams which were named by the Reporter-News over the week-end. Hamlin failed to place a man on the two top cage groups.

Colorado City's Billy Simmons and Brady's Bobby Weise, two players who averaged better than 20 points per game, top the list of five cagers making up the first string. Others on the leading Class AA mythical group are Lynn Fabuon of Winters, Dallas Christian of Stamford and Bobby White of Stephenville.

The second team is composed of Sonny Gibbs of Graham, James McGinnis of DeLeon, Jody Weidner of Stephenville, Charles Bridwell of Coleman and John Duke of Ballinger.

The first unit as a team averaged 89.2 points per game, while the second squad averaged 68.5 tallies.

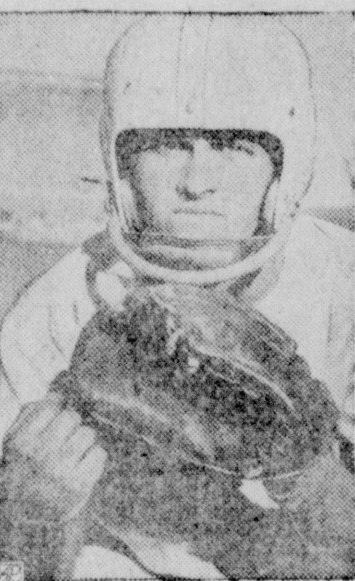

The 10 players were selected from more than 160 boys who participated on one of the 16 teams in West Central Texas playing in Class AA basketball.

Players were eligible from Winters, Ballinger, Coleman, Brady, Comanche, Lake View of San Angelo, Stephenville, DeLeon, Cisco, Graham, Mineral Wells, Breckenridge, Stamford, Hamlin, Anson and Colorado City.

Anson Man Wins Plymouth Prize for World Trip and $5,000

Announcement was made Tuesday night on a national news broadcast that Grady L. Flynt of Anson had been named second prize winner of lucky motor number sweepstakes sponsored by the Plymouth Motor Corporation. The Anson man had registered his entry in the contest at Prewitt Motor Company in Stamford.

When Dave Prewitt advised Flynt that he had won second prize of $5,000 in cash and a trip around the world for two, Flynt said, "I don't believe it." Later when Prewitt went with Flynt to the Anson Memorial Hospital, where Mrs. Flynt works, to advise her of the good news, she likewise was difficult to convince.

BEEF GRADES SPLIT

Grounds Readied For Rice Springs Rodeo at Haskell

Grounds are being placed in readiness and improvements are being made to the rodeo plant in preparation for the third annual Rice Springs Roundup, to be presented at Haskell May 17 to 19 under sponsorship of the Haskell Saddle Tramps. Jetty V. Clair Haskell, newspaperman, is president of the riding club.

The three-day show at Haskell is one of the first major rodeos of the season in this section, and each year since its beginning has attracted some of the top rodeo contestants in the Southwest.

The 1956 rodeo will be produced by Morris Stephens of Silverton, with seven major events being staged nightly in the Saddle Tramp arena. Included will be both bareback and saddle bronc riding, calf roping, sponsor's barrel race, Brahma bull riding, double mugging, and cutting horse contest. More than $2,000 in cash awards will be paid winners.

Colorful event on opening day will be a parade at 4:00 p. m. on Thursday, May 17. Twenty riding clubs and a number of high school bands from neighboring towns and cities have been invited to participate in this event. Attractive trophies will be presented the three top riding clubs, with appropriate recognition also being given winning high school bands.

The Santa Rosa Riding Club of Vernon has been invited to lead the grand entry opening the first night performance.

Fire Destroys House In Colored Section

Fire of undetermined origin almost completely destroyed the small home in the colored section of town occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Harris Friday evening at 8:00 o'clock.

The house belonged to Bertha Jones. The house and contents were valued at about $2,000, and they were 60 per cent destroyed, according to estimate by T. W. (Mickey) McGuire, fire marshal.

Hamlin's Speedy Ken Hewett Places in Bluebonnet Relays to Give Team Eighth

By garnering three points in the annual Bluebonnet Relays played last week-end at Brownwood, Ken Hewett, runner from Hamlin High School, put this Northwest Jones County metropolis eighth in the rating of the 12 teams entered.

Hewett placed second in the 880-yard run close on the heels of Jim Parr of Amarillo, who set a time a 2:02.3 minutes for the event.

Coach Jim Herridge of the Hamlin delegation declares that his crews have run up against some of the toughest competition this year in area meets he has ever witnessed.

Brady took the Bluebonnet meet with 31½ points. Brownwood was second with 28½, while Amarillo and San Angelo tied for third with 21 points each. McCallum High School of Austin was fifth with 12½. Coleman followed with 10. Ballinger had six, Hamlin three. Cisco netted two and Winters two points. Breckenridge was the area's only team failing to score.

Hamlin High School Netters Play in Big Time Meet at Dallas

Hamlin High School's doubles team of Perry Davis and Ted Wright last Tuesday defeated the Stamford tennis doubles unit by 6-0 and 6-4 scores.

The Hamlin netters took advantage of the long holiday season to enter the Dallas Invitational tournament. The team of Davis and Don Hicks beat Garland's No. 1 team before losing to the second seeded team in the tournament. Others making the trip were Charles Green and James Lafler.

Thursday the boys and girls will journey to Abilene to fight for district honors. Ted Wright will play in the top singles in the senior division. Perry Davis and Don Hicks will be the senior doubles representatives.

Charles Green will vie for the junior singles crown in the district meet. Don Shivers and Lane Carmichael or James Lafler and Phillip Miller will be the junior doubles entry.

Libby Johnson will be the senior girls' entry. Carolyn Barnett and Peggy Killian will be the doubles team. Junior division girls players are as yet undecided.

as Cotton Farmers Can Plant More Acres Than Were Harvested Last Year

on farmers of the Hamlin and the rest of the state can more acres of cotton in 1956 than was harvested in 1955. It is estimated that the state will make full use of the state's cotton acreage.

A Texas Stabilization and Conservation Committee points out that the 1956 cotton acreage led to Texas producers is 1,893 acres. Final figures released by the U. S. Department of Agriculture on the 1955 cotton shows that 6,860,000 acres were harvested in the state.

All farms in the state eligible for a cotton allotment have been given an acreage for 1956. The state committee has all producers who do not want to plant their allotted acreage to contact the local ASC office and return to the county committee any cotton acreage not planted. It can then be re-allocated to producers in the county who have asked for additional acres. A final date has been set in each county for turning in the acres which will not be planted.

If the intentions not to plant are not known, and the acreage not reallocated, the county loses the acreage and the farm gets no credit on its historical base. Acreage can be returned on both a temporary, and permanent basis. A full explanation, says the state committee, can be obtained from the Jones County committee or from officials in the county ASC office at Anson.

Calvin L. White of 613 Northwest Avenue G, Hamlin, husband of Virginia Ann White, has compiled an enviable record for promotions as a member of the Naval Reserve CB Division 8-19 in Abilene, according to a release from the U. S. Naval Reserve Training Center there.

White, an employee of the Texas Highway Department, enlisted in the Naval Reserve on October 18, 1950, and on October 18, 1951, he was promoted to surveyor third class. Being a column in which the publisher just "blows off the steam".

WE CAN'T RESIST passing on to both of our readers a new batch of bards from Doc Ankham, fictitious character, who writes in a paper trades magazine coming to our desk:

Ex Tike never realized how hard it is to drive a bargain until he bought that second-hand car. If it's true that women dress to express themselves, some have very little to say. It's strange but men will drink about anything put before them, but check very carefully the oil put in their car.

Speaking of women's costumes, the end frequently does not justify the means. Fred Fears states that Lady Golliva was just an air-conditioned Paul Revere.

Buzz Burrell claims that out to the Golf Club the other day a golfer playing behind Buzz's group asked if he could play through—said he'd just been notified that his wife was in a serious accident.

MOST OF US recognize the business abilities of our better three-quarters. But some fellow's women folks command them more than others. One fellow, Stephen Schlitter, must be one of those, for he says in rhyme...

If it's a man's world, As some people claim, I'm perfectly sure It's in his wife's name.

PERSISTENCE is the one secret to most successes. An unknown author put it in nice words like this:

It is easy to quit. Anyone can say, "The hill is too high" or "It's too far away."

Anyone can say, "I'm too tired to keep on," And stop halfway there. But don't be that one. Whenever life gives you a task hard to do, Don't stop in the middle, but see the thing through.

It is easy to quit. Any fool can explain To himself and his friends why the struggle was vain. It doesn't take brains when you start cutting loose From a difficult task to think up an excuse.

There is always a plausible, soul-soothing excuse On the tongue of the chap who says "It's no use."

REARING a family is one of life's most interesting experiences—and most perplexing. In other words:

The golden age of parenthood Is when the children are Too old for baby sitters, but Too young to drive the car!

THE FELLOW who was a super salesman saw the possibilities of a Bible sale, and placed this sign in his window:

Holy scripture, writ divine, At a dollar forty-nine; Satan trembles when he sees Bibles sold as cheap as these!

Funds Available to County Farmers for Wind Erosion Projects

Funds are being provided under provision of the Agricultural Conservation Program for assistance to farmers in carrying out emergency wind erosion measures in drouth areas, it is announced by Olin Potts, member of the Jones County ASC committee.

Tillage operations which may qualify for assistance are contour listing, contour chiseling, cross-slope chiseling, pit cultivation and listing or chiseling not on the contour.

It is not known at this time how much money will be available for the program or the rate of assistance to be offered, but it is expected that the assistance will amount to between 50 cents and $1 per acre.

All producers, says Potts, who plan to qualify for assistance under any of the tillage practices listed are urged to file an application at the ASC office not later than April 12.

Easter can occur any time between March 22 and April 25.

Most of Expense Money for Senior Trip Now Raised

Verification of the plans for the annual trip for seniors of Hamlin High School has been acknowledged, according to Mrs. Austin Poe and Jess Parrish, class sponsors.

The trip, following the plan of the past three years, will be a five-day affair to New Orleans, Louisiana, and return. The group will leave May 8 and return on May 13.

About 37 of the 50 seniors have already signed up for the trip, expenses for which will be paid from a fund that has been in the making since the start of school last fall. Approximately $2,000 is required for the trip that will be made by chartered bus, some $1,500 of which already has been raised, according to the sponsors. Latest money raising project of the class was the annual senior play, presented last week, which netted about $500. Other projects have included sales of pennants, Christmas and personal cards, and cake sales.

In addition to the class sponsors, the graduates will be accompanied to New Orleans by the town mothers, Mmes. Holly Toler, E. A. Hewett and O. D. Roland.

Resuscitator Fund Nears $625 Goal

Purchase of the resuscitator machine for the Hamlin community seemed assured Wednesday as reports of contributions to the fund approached the $625 goal, it was announced by officials of the Hamlin Fire Department, under whose sponsorship the drive for funds has been conducted for the past two weeks.

Donations at last report Wednesday morning stood at $510, it was reported. Several other major gifts are anticipated to be made this week-end that will put the fund "over the top," firemen said.

The resuscitator is a machine that has been developed to give assistance to respiratory organs of the body in connection with electric shock, drowning, suffocation and related failures of the respiratory system, it is pointed out. The community has been in need of such equipment for a long time, firemen said, who decided to conduct a drive to raise funds for purchase of the machine as a community service.

Three Councilmen Renamed as 165 Ballots Are Cast

A group of voters Tuesday ousted the incumbent, Mayor Willard Jones, in a late developing write-in voting campaign that elected O. D. Roland, oil company consignee and former member of the City Council. Roland received 101 votes to 60 for Jones.

Three councilmen who were elected three years ago in spirited balloting were reelected for two-year terms with little opposition. They were L. E. (Gene) Prewitt, B. O. Bell and W. S. Seals.

The campaign to have Jones replaced was revealed late Tuesday afternoon when several citizens began contacting friends and urging them to go to the polls and scratch Jones' name from the ticket and write in Roland's.

Little interest had been shown in voting until mid-afternoon, less than 50 votes having been tabulated at 3:00 o'clock, according to J. E. Patterson, election judge. Only 165 votes were cast compared with 480 polled two years ago.

In 1954, when both Roland's and Jones' names were on the ballot, Jones defeated Roland by 348 to 132.

Prewitt received 154 votes, Bell 159 and Seals 154. Names of four others were written in to receive one vote each. They were Jim Howard King, Bill Harbert, Arlie Casle and Charles Connally.

The four new officials will take office at the next regular meeting of the City Council on April 17, it is announced.

James D. Willeford to Preach in Meeting At Church of Christ

Plans are in the making by members of the local congregation of the Church of Christ for a gospel meeting scheduled from April 15 through 22, with James D. Willeford of Abilene doing the preaching.

For the past five years Willeford has done most of the preaching on a nation-wide radio cast known as the Herald of Truth, which is heard at various hours every Sunday over most affiliates of ABC. The program originates in Abilene and is sponsored by the Highland Church of Christ of that city and supported by many other congregations, among which is the local church.

Pasture Improvements in Hamlin Area Continue Despite Ravages of Drouths

Despite dry weather in the Hamlin region, county agents of Jones, Fisher and Stonewall Counties report that pasture improvements have been going forward to help ranchers and farmers recoup some of their losses.

Drouth, in combination with lower prices for livestock and livestock products in 1955, cut profits and made good pasture management difficult in many Texas areas. But E. M. Trew, extension pasture specialist, in a year-end report said sound forage programs continued to be much more important from the profit standpoint in 1955 than in years of high prices and normal rainfall.

He said extension workers continued to emphasize the need for getting maximum livestock production from pastures. But for the state as a whole, forage produced was 24 per cent below the actual needs. On the brighter side of the picture, county agents reported that educational programs which they conducted in the counties added an estimated $35,651,228 to the value of pastures. Farmers and ranchmen stored 12 per cent more hay and bundle feed and 37.6 per cent more silage than in 1954, and the same reserves were 44 and 31 per cent respectively above those stored in 1953.

Trew said the county educational programs on pasture improvement involved the holding by county agents of 1,009 indoor meetings with more than 31,000 persons attending; 340 pasture tours attended by 16,600; the writing of 1,800 news stories and supervising 5,058 demonstrations involving approximately 8,200,000 acres. These demonstrations included permanent and temporary pastures, fertilization and rotation grazing.

In addition, county agents established 2,336 new permanent pasture demonstrations on 111,687 acres. Trew said the drouth years have made Texas livestock producers appreciate more than ever the importance of forage reserves for use when green grazing is not available.

Cut-Back in Pig Production Improves Outlook for Better Stock Market Prices

Very few of the top meat type hogs were included in Monday's offering at Fort Worth, making it difficult for salesmen to press for a higher market despite the smaller runs around the market circle, declares Ted Gouldy, special market reporter for The Herald, in his weekly release. His release continues:

Prices were fully steady to strong, and top meat type butchers scored $15 to $15.25; with less desirable weights and grades $12 to $14.50; and butcher pigs at $10 to $11. Sows drew $9 to $12. Stags sold at $5 to $6.

Farmers in the Corn Belt states are reported cutting back pig production more than earlier intentions. This helps the price outlook for the year ahead. A special U. S. Department of Agriculture March 1 survey indicates a spring pig crop seven per cent under a year ago. This compares with the December estimate of a drop of four per cent in spring pigs.

Fat steers and yearlings were steady to strong at Fort Worth, some yearlings and heifers selling better again. Seasonal improvement in fat cattle is being helped by continuance of tapering off of supplies in the North. Cows ruled steady. Fat calves were steady to stronger.

Stockers are feeling the pinch of the dry weather, thin kinds with quality are steady. Others are tending lower. Corn Belt outlets are still bearish in view of the losses during the past feeding season.

Comparative prices included: Fed steers and yearlings, good to choice, $16 to $19; heifers, $17.50 down; plain to medium yearlings, $12 to $15.50; fat cows, $11.50 to $13, some heiferish kinds higher; canners and cutters, $7.50 to $11.50; bulls, $10 to $14.50, few higher; good and choice slaughter calves, $16 to $20.50. Cull to medium sorts netted $11 to $15; stocker steer calves, $10 down, light yearlings, $18.50 down; heavier yearlings, $17 down; stocker cows, $9 to $13.

Glen Tole, secretary of Texas Aberdeen-Angus Association, and Henry Elder, secretary of Texas Hereford Association, report considerable interest in the April 13 stocker cows and pairs distribution sale slated for the Fort Worth stockyards. They say buying and selling interest are about equally divided.

Salesmen at the market will price or sell the animals either by the dollars per head or sell them by the pound, whichever way the seller or the buyer wants.

Church of Christ Plant Being Redecorated

A redecorating and modernization program costing approximately $3,500 is being completed at the Hamlin Church of Christ, according to church leaders.

Included in the refurbishing project are redecoration of the main auditorium of the church, carpeting of aisles and pulpit, redecoration of all Bible School classrooms and addition of modern classroom furniture.

It done. In the event they are sold by the head or by the dollar, the cattle will cross the sales for purposes of making a verified count and no weight will be stamped on the scale ticket.

A COMMUNITY IS NO GREATER THAN ITS LEADERS

Did you ever notice that when you find a friendly, prosperous and up-to-and-going place of business, you find behind that concern a man who has the same traits of character and business ability that are reflected in that business and its relationships to its patrons?

If the owner or manager is on his toes, keeps up with modern merchandising trends, sees that good service and courtesy are maintained in his organization, then that business is remembered for the way it treats its patrons and makes them want to go back there again and again.

A community is the same way. A community cannot be anything but a reflection of its leadership. Only to the extent that the citizens—and especially the leaders—work for their community, boost it, defend it, praise and back up their fellow citizens by cooperation, support and boosting—can that community grow and make good impressions upon those who come in contact with it.

We wish scores more of Hamlin community's leaders and business men could have heard the kind but scorching words which the speaker at the annual Abilene Chamber of Commerce banquet the other evening delivered to nearly 1,000 people. He made his listener feel that he had a very definite responsibility to his community—which he has, whether he shoulders that responsibility or not.

The speaker went on to declare that our attitudes of boosting one another definitely are reflected in the growth and wholesomeness and lasting impressions of our community. Seeds of optimism, community pride and helpfulness blossom into a flourishing, progressive and growing community.

And those community leaders who have in the past worked hard for the area in which they live cannot afford to let up, with the thought or assertion that "I've had my stint of community service; let some other, younger fellows take over now." The old-timers and new-timers must work together if our community is to maintain its leadership as a bustling, friendly, optimistic community such as it has gained in the recent past.

By the same manner that a community spirit of optimism breeds growth, friendliness and cooperation, so does the opposite attitude of gloom, back-biting, criticism of others and lack of teamwork work to the detriment of the community.

Yes, a community is no better than its leadership!

Who Is Hit Hardest?

The federal income tax begins at 20 per cent, on the lowest taxable incomes. From there on it rises until it reaches 91 per cent in the high brackets.

You might logically judge from this that a large number of people, because of the progressive taxation, pay most of the tax bill. But they don't. Eighty-four per cent of all individual income taxes collected comes from the basic 20 per cent rate, and only 16 per cent from the sur-taxes. As Graham Patterson put it in Town Journal, "So the high rates are actually more destructive of income than productive of revenue."

Excessively costly government hits everyone—and it hits the people of moderate means hardest. There are not enough rich people to carry the load.

Through 1,062 Eyes

There are 531 members of Congress and they meet every year. "But every fourth year," Economic Intelligence observes, "a transformation takes place. All eyes—1,062 of them—turn toward November. Subjects for debate are determined, not by their bearing on the national interest, but by their capacity to get and hold votes."

The public should keep this election year transformation in mind—especially when one side attempts to persuade us that the other side is made up of nefarious characters intent on selling the nation down the river to greedy special interests.

Do You Like Your Job?

We all know people who are constantly complaining of their lot, particularly as to the occupation they happen to be following. It seems that they are forever of the opinion that the other fellow has the better job. And this is not confined to men and boys. Girls and women are also afflicted.

It is quite common to hear of a housewife in a comfortable home saying that house work is nothing but a drudge, and that she would sooner be employed in an office or store, while many of those thus employed envy the life of the wife.

Someone said, "The secret of life is not to do what one likes to do, but try to like what one has to do." None gets just what he wants, but he can have what he likes if he likes what he has.

An Analogy

Patriotism stands in national matters as love of family does in private life. Nationalism corresponds to the love a man bears for his wife and children. Internationalism corresponds to the feeling he has for his neighbors generally. The sound nationalist is the only type of really helpful internationalist—precisely as in private relations it is the man most devoted to his wife and children who in the long run is apt to be the most satisfactory neighbor.—Theodore Roosevelt.

We feel that labor unions have served useful purposes in the past. However, if they are to continue to serve the best interests of the people, labor leaders must realize that restrictive tactics and "feather bedding" produce not more jobs, but fewer jobs in this age of mass production, pre-fabrication and automation.—Covington, Tennessee, Leader.

KHRUSHCHEV TELLS THE WORLD

The Khrushchev speech to the Community party Congress provides a most timely service for the free world, including cold war neutrals as well as the Western alliance. No one else could have done that service better. No non-Russian, nor any other Russian, could have spoken with such authority about Soviet aims.

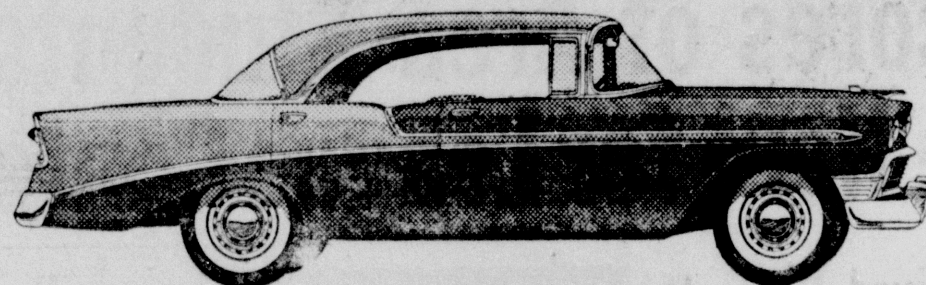

It will be well to believe that Nikita S. Khrushchev, head of the Soviet Communist party and now clearly top man in the Kremlin, means what he says.

And what is this? Simply, starkly, that the Soviet Union will use international communism to destroy other nations' ways of life and government throughout the free world, allied or neutral. Foreign aid programs, trade, disarmament—these are all subservient considerations in Soviet foreign policy. Subservient that is, to a central objective that amounts to aggression short only of major war.

Co-existence as Mr. Khrushchev spells it is not an end, but a means to an end. The end is the omni-existence of Communist dictatorship and the non-existence of any other form of government.

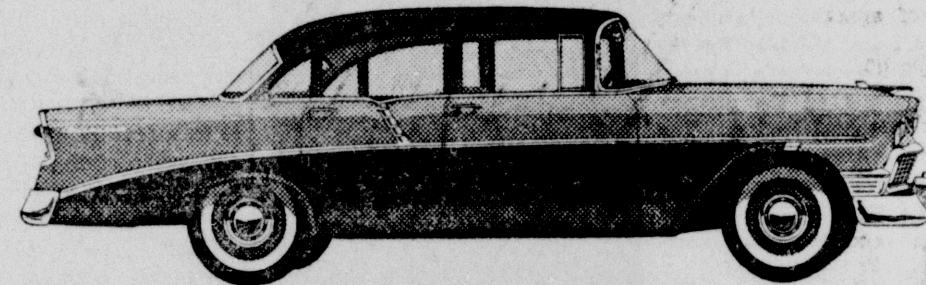

The Soviet Union, he has told the Communist party meeting, is now strong enough to achieve this aim without war. But the aim is as fixed as ever. The atom may have produced an East-West military stalemate. But it does not, in Mr. Khrushchev's plan, prevent communism from infiltrating free world politics.—The Christian Science Monitor.

RECALLING Other Years

☆ Being news items taken from old files of Your Home - Town Newspaper, The Herald.

TWENTY YEARS AGO.

From the files of The Hamlin Herald are taken the following items of interest of 20 years ago, being reprinted from the issue of April 3, 1936:

Final figures for the 1935-36 cotton crop show Jones County was second high producing county in the state. Nueces County led with 88,083 bales, and Jones County was second with 67,790 bales. Following were McLennan, Navarro and Ellis Counties.

Some people get tired when they see other work. Mr. and Mrs. Dan J. Payne of Roswell, New Mexico, were here Sunday to visit his mother, Mrs. D. J. Payne.

Jack Bryan Farrow of Hamlin has been accepted for duty with the Navy, according to a release from the San Diego, California, Navy base.

Harold Lloyd is featured in "The Milky Way" at the Ferguson Theater.

Mary Emily Eakins was hostess to the Sub-Deb Club Wednesday afternoon at her home. Present were Lois Ellen Stell, Mary Dell Parks, Virginia Sue Flowers, Mattie Wilkerson, Phyllis Millsap, Fay LaVerne Howard, Constance Teague and Marie Akers.

Mmes. J. Frank Johnson, W. R. Calhoun, Tate and Dewey Gildon went to Seymour Wednesday to attend the meeting of the First District of Texas Federated Women's Club.

TEN YEARS AGO.

Goings-on in the Hamlin community 10 years ago included the following items of interest, reproduced from the issue of The Hamlin Herald dated April 5, 1946:

Five candidates are seeking the seat of Sam Russell of Stephenville in Congress. They are William Blanton of Albany, Ted Miles of Stamford, Omar Burleson of Anson, Bob Wagstaff of Abilene and Robert R. Herring of Breckenridge.

Lewis Blair of Dundee will furnish the wild and woolly stock for the two-day rodeo slated this week-end at Hamlin. More than $1,000 in cash prizes will be given to winners in the various events, according to promoters.

Stonewall County remained in the dry column as far as drinks are concerned, when voters of the county to the north cast 402 votes for the sale of beer and 618 against in spirited balloting Saturday.

Keith Louise Jobe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Jobe of Wilson, and Durwood Dean Witt, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Witt, were married Sunday in services at Ropesville.

FIVE YEARS AGO.

Among news items of interest in the Hamlin community five years ago were the following, reprinted from the issue of The Hamlin Herald dated March 31, 1951:

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Redus of Pampa spent the Easter holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Redus.

A Dollar Day trade stimulator is being sponsored soon by the Hamlin Chamber of Commerce, according to directors of the civic organization.

New Hamlin Drive-In Theater was formally opened Thursday at the south Hamlin city limits. The new showhouse was constructed by Mrs. B. S. Ferguson, owner of the other two theaters of the city.

Members of the Hamlin High School track and field team will defend their Brady Relays cup, which the local crew has won two years in a row, when the group goes this week to the event in the Central Texas competition.

No opposition for reelection of three trustees to the board of Hamlin School District has developed. Slated for reelection in the Saturday voting are Edward Dodd, LaFoy Patterson and Eddie Jay.

ONE YEAR AGO.

Considered news one year ago in the Hamlin community were the following briefs, taken from the issue of The Hamlin Herald dated April 8, 1955.

Issuing of car licenses for the Hamlin area is lagging, says Jim Howard King, deputy in Hamlin.

Hammett Attyia, 18-year-old oil field worker of Seminole, Oklahoma, was killed instantly in a well drilling accident on the Frank Steele place, 14 miles west of Hamlin, about 5:30 o'clock Monday afternoon.

Twenty-nine blocks of street paving has been completed or is under construction in the current program being sponsored by the City of Hamlin.

Cut-Back in Pig Production Improves Outlook for Better Stock Market Prices

Very few of the top meat type hogs were included in Monday's offering at Fort Worth, making it difficult for salesmen to press for a higher market despite the smaller runs around the market circle, declares Ted Gouldy, special market reporter for The Herald, in his weekly release. His release continues:

Prices were fully steady to strong, and top meat type butchers scored $15 to $15.25; with less desirable weights and grades $12 to $14.50; and butcher pigs at $10 to $11. Sows drew $9 to $12. Stags sold at $5 to $6.

Farmers in the Corn Belt states are reported cutting back pig production more than earlier intentions. This helps the price outlook for the year ahead. A special U. S. Department of Agriculture March 1 survey indicates a spring pig crop seven per cent under a year ago. This compares with the December estimate of a drop of four per cent in spring pigs.

Fat steers and yearlings were steady to strong at Fort Worth, some yearlings and heifers selling better again. Seasonal improvement in fat cattle is being helped by continuance of tapering off of supplies in the North. Cows ruled steady. Fat calves were steady to stronger.

Stockers are feeling the pinch of the dry weather, thin kinds with quality are steady. Others are tending lower. Corn Belt outlets are still bearish in view of the losses during the past feeding season.

Comparative prices included: Fed steers and yearlings, good to choice, $16 to $19; heifers, $17.50 down; plain to medium yearlings, $12 to $15.50; fat cows, $11.50 to $13, some heiferish kinds higher; canners and cutters, $7.50 to $11.50; bulls, $10 to $14.50, few higher; good and choice slaughter calves, $16 to $20.50. Cull to medium sorts netted $11 to $15; stocker steer calves, $10 down; light yearlings, $18.50 down; heavier yearlings, $17 down; stocker cows, $9 to $13.

Glen Tole, secretary of Texas Aberdeen-Angus Association, and Henry Elder, secretary of Texas Hereford Association, report considerable interest in the April 13 stocker cows and pairs distribution sale slated for the Fort Worth stockyards. They say buying and selling interest are about equally divided.

Salesmen at the market will price or sell the animals either by the dollars per head or sell them by the pound, whichever way the seller or the buyer wants.

Church of Christ Plant Being Redecorated

A redecorating and modernization program costing approximately $3,500 is being completed at the Hamlin Church of Christ, according to church leaders.

Included in the refurbishing project are redecoration of the main auditorium of the church, carpeting of aisles and pulpit, redecorating of all Bible School classrooms and addition of modern classroom furniture.

It done. In the event they are sold by the head or by the dollar, the cattle will cross the sales for purposes of making a verified count and no weight will be stamped on the scale ticket.

First year through its international relations office, the American Red Cross rushed aid to 11 foreign countries which suffered great devastation from flood, hurricane or fire.

Mrs. Brad Rowland Sr. Speaks to Methodist Women at Brunch

Mrs. Brad Rowland Sr. was the guest speaker for the Bonnie McLeod Circle of the First Methodist Church Women's Society of Christian Service when the group met Tuesday morning in the ranch home of Mrs. W. F. Martin.

Mrs. Rowland reviewed "Gift from the Sea" by Anne Morrow Lindbergh. Mrs. Lindbergh relates in her book that everyone has problems, and the solitude of being alone by the sea helped her to solve hers, and she decided to share that gift of the sea with others. She said solitude could be the salvation of one, your family and perhaps civilization. The book is an answer to the conflicts in people's lives.

Mrs. Richard Young, circle chairman, presided for a short business session. Opening prayer was given by Mrs. L. H. McBride. The circle voted to present life memberships to Velma Rowland and Jeri Ann Waggoner and one adult life membership to Mrs. Jack Richey.

State Capitol NEWS

By Vern Sanford, Manager, Texas Press Association.

Austin—Battle lines are fast forming. The scrap for control of the Texas delegation to the Democratic national convention is a high tension argument. Harmony is out. Now it's a no-holds-barred, toe-to-toe slugfest.

It started when House Speaker Sam Rayburn, leader of Texas liberal-loyalist forces and godfather of the Democratic advisory council, proposed that U. S. Senator Lyndon Johnson be Texas' favorite son candidate for president of the United States... and head the Texas delegation to the nominating convention in Chicago.

George W. Candlin, chairman of the Democratic state executive committee, had proposed Governor Allan Shivers as chairman. Shivers charged that Byron Skelton, chairman of the DAC, had thought up the favorite son and chairman idea... and that Rayburn "is just his mouthpiece."

Shivers denounced Rayburn's proposal as a "cynical and calculated effort to divide the conservative Democrats of Texas... an attempt to maneuver the senator into the DAC-PAC camp."

Then he challenged Johnson to denounce liberal-loyalist backing and take a stand for states' rights. Johnson's answer was that he would head only a middle-of-the-road delegation. Not only "from either fringe"—either ultra-conservative or ultra-liberal.

"No one knows better than Allan Shivers that I am not a creature of the ADA, DAC, PAC, NAACP, CIO or any other group

he may have named," snapped Johnson. "Nor am I an errand boy of reactionary big business or the Republican party."

Verbal blasts from Washington and Austin continued. Shivers accused Rayburn of "trying to run Texas from Washington." Rayburn termed Shivers "an angry, confused, frustrated man... on a sinking ship." Adding "I belong to no faction but the Democratic party."

Shivers replied that had he gotten in the boat with Rayburn and Adlai Stevenson in 1952, "we would have lost both the boat and the tides." He charged Rayburn with "being a Democrat first and an American second."

Shivers has declared he will not pledge himself to support "any nominee," and will hold himself free to vote for the man he considers best for president regardless of party... "and I hope it is a Democrat."

Fencing between Johnson and Shivers was in milder tones, with Shivers concluding that he had no desire to battle with "my old friend, Lyndon Johnson." Without withdrawing his demand for Johnson to state his position on the issues, Shivers said "I would not stand in the way of Texas honoring him as chairman of the delegation or as favorite son."

Johnson has not said whether he would permit his name to be presented as a favorite son candidate, or whether he would take the chairmanship. He has said, however, that he hopes to be a delegate.

All of which means a showdown fight for control of the Democratic state convention in Dallas, set for May 22. Liberals have promised a contest there... and if they lose they will attempt to bar the conservatives from the national convention. Rayburn will be temporary chairman of the national convention.

Complying with Governor Shivers' request, the Democratic state executive committee has ordered on the July ballot a referendum on "interposition." This seeks a voters' mandate for the Texas Legislature to petition Congress for a constitutional amendment re-establishing and protecting states' rights.

It is an attack on U. S. Supreme Court decisions, such as the tidelands, school segregation, federal control over natural gas, etc. which Texas conservatives have branded as an unauthorized invasion of states' rights.

C. T. Johnson, who testified five times under oath that he had spent "no more and no less" than $125 in traveling the length and breadth of Texas while campaigning for lieutenant governor in 1954, now admits spending $1,200 more than he reported.

This exposure resulted from charges by Russell W. Bryant, Italy publisher, that Johnson could not have traveled an admitted 12,000 to 15,000 miles for $125 (or approximately one cent a mile). "There isn't a standard make automobile made that doesn't cost

Besides the singers, other guests at the Wednesday luncheon included W. M. Blackburn of Stamford; George S. Cowan and Peter Fox of Sweetwater; Tage Adolfsen of Stockholm, Sweden; and Rev. Darris Egger of Hamlin. Ted Wright was recognized as Junior Rotarian for the day.

If Government Could Cash In Holdings It Could Balance Budget, Burleson Says

A committee of the House of Representatives recently reported that the United States government owned property around the world valued at $208,000,000,000.

writes Congressman Omar Burleson in his regular weekly news letter "Washington: As It Looks from Here." He continues:

Ordinarily, we conclude that, if an individual or a corporation can balance its books, it is solvent. Counting this $208,000,000,000 in property, the federal government could easily balance its assets against the public debt. This, of course, is only theoretical.

Even supposing the government could theoretically liquidate its holdings, its values are somewhat in question. The House administration committee, on which I have the honor to serve as chairman, is trying its best to reduce the tremendous printing bill which the government incurs each year. The printing bill of the United States has been running near $250,000,000 annually. There are 180,000 different government forms in use. It has been found that literally thousands have become obsolete, and some were out of date immediately after they were printed.

Every time Congress passes any new law, or the president issues an executive order, there follows hundreds and thousands of forms related to it.

A farm for a veteran may want to know whether his wife is left-handed or right, and then it is decided the information is not sufficient and another form is produced.

In addition to all these forms which are many times harassing to businessmen and others, there are thousands of publications stored in numerous places, which are as useless as anything could be. There are books and publications in storage rooms in the bowels of the capitol that no one knows what they are or how long they have been there. Some of them are stacked so high that no one knows what is behind them, but yet the government continues to publish more and add to the volume of useless material.

My committee is trying to determine what is absolutely useless and dispose of it, and more than that, we will attempt to reduce the production of these useless publications and materials to the minimum. The government has the largest printing establishment in the world and it likely will continue, but there is no need for it to spend $250,000,000 a year for the purpose. It reminds me of the story of the little boy with the magic salt machine. You remember he turned it on, but did not know how to turn it off, and hence the reason for the salt water in the oceans.

A conversation between two scientists overheard in the congressional library the other day: "They talk about the discrimination of man against man. Why don't they talk about the discrimination of nature against man?" "Like what?" the second one asked.

"We should have four seasons on each of the five continents." "How are we going to get it?" "Adjust the earth on its axis. Archimedes said that with a fulcrum he could move the world." "Then maybe with four seasons on each continent, or with our ability to adjust the earth's line of spin, we will have fewer wars, fewer depressions, and less havoc wrought by nature's discrimination against man?" "Yes," replied the other, "that would mean for each of us longer life with less pain, a life lived more creatively and with less waste." Were these gentlemen trying to make proper use of the modern world and all its opportunities or were they waiting for the man with the butterfly net?

Role of Oil Firms Revealed in Film Shown for Lions

"It Never Rains Oil" was the title of an informative and entertaining colored motion picture on oil development that was shown at the Tuesday noon luncheon of Hamlin Lions Club at the oil mill guest house. The film was supplied by the General Crude Oil Company through Joe League, local manager of the concern's gathering system.

Bringing the film from Houston was P. J. Ewald, personnel and safety director of General Crude's Houston office.

The film gave in graphic form the part which oil is playing in today's every-day economy, showing that hundreds of household articles are made from oil, in addition to the uses of the products for fuel and lubrication.

The big chances oil companies take in drilling for oil were revealed by figures that showed only one out of nine wells drilled finds oil; one out of 44 wells drilled breaks even; and one out of 991 is big paying. The role of taxpaying by the oil industry also was emphasized by the picture.

Lions President Bill Seals announced that a nominating committee for suggesting a slate of new officers for the year beginning July 1 has been named.

A committee from the club to work with the Little League was appointed to include Henry Albritton, John Lea, Harold Bonner, George Campbell, Charles Lovell and L. H. McBride.

Information on the international convention, to be held at Miami, Florida, in June, was distributed. Probably several from the local club will make the cruise from Galveston to Miami to the session.

Besides Ewald, other guests at the Tuesday luncheon included John Richardson of Dallas and Harry Carmichael of Anson.

Estimated 180 from County Join Armed Forces During 1955

Around 180 Jones County young men and women entered the armed forces in 1955, it has been estimated.

A total of 46,545 Texans entered military service in 1955, the records at state selective service headquarters at Austin show.

While these Texans were donning uniforms, a total of 54,499 was separated from active service, Lieutenant Colonel Morris S. Schwartz, state selective service director, pointed out.

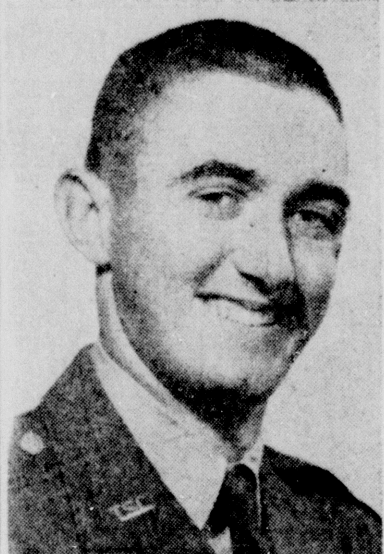

"Nearly 8,000 more got out than went in," Colonel Schwartz said, "a reflection of the reduction in strength of the military services during 1955."

Of the 46,545 Texans who went into military service 38,591 went in by enlistment or other voluntary means. The remainder, 7,954, entered service through the draft boards. Nearly all those entering through the draft went into the Army. Only a few inductees went into the Navy, all in the month of November.

Texas' 137 draft boards forwarded 6,946 men during 1955 for pre-induction physical and mental examinations. Of this number, 4,200 were found acceptable for service, and the remainder, 2,746, were found unacceptable.

"This means that almost four out of every 10 men examined during the year were turned down for military service," Colonel Schwartz pointed out.

When a draft board registrant is given the examination, he returns home to await his call for service if he passes the test. If he fails it, he is classified 4-F.

MADE SERGEANT—Recently earning his sergeant's stripes at Tarleton State College was Jack Drummond (above), son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Drummond of Hamlin. A 1955 graduate of Hamlin High School, Jack entered Tarleton last September. He is a member of the Vain-right Rifle Corps, which was given highest rating in the state last year. He also is a member of the honor guard.

When it comes to Protection ... it pays to have the BEST

A good, big placard could often prove a friend indeed to the old-time song and dance man—but it was too late to order a bigger sign after the eggs had started flying. Dependable insurance is like that, too. It's one thing you can't buy when you need it most. After an accident or loss has occurred, it's too late to get better insurance if the policy you have proves unsatisfactory. So don't gamble with "cheap" insurance. Buy only the BEST—and buy it today.

Modern family minus electricity

What would you do without low-cost electric service in your home? Well—you could use candles. And build fires. And use elbow grease for all the jobs Reddy Kilo-watt does automatically. If you did, you would be reminded quickly—and forcefully—how much your electric service does at such low costs for each of the many jobs. Your electric service is the biggest bargain in your family budget. What else gives you so much value in comfort, health, ease and fun? Keeping your electric service high in usefulness, low in cost is the main job of your electric service company.

So many things develop from within, and so do we. The chick comes out of the egg, the flower from a tiny seed, the tree adds rings year after year to its outer core. Always it is the inner life.

And so it is with the heart of man. When the inner man is fed by God's Holy Word, the outer life becomes a joyful expression, a vital power that overcomes all obstacles and sweeps on to eternal life.

The Church nourishes the inner life of spirit so essential to outer growth and beautiful expression. From the Church comes the instruction and inspiration for happy, worthwhile living. Attend some church regularly, and see what a difference it makes.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

None from Hamlin Named to All-Area Star Cage Teams

Stephenville Only School to Place Two on Selections

Stephenville High School was the only school placing two men in the all-area Class AA basketball first and second teams which were named by the Reporter-News over the week-end. Hamlin failed to place a man on the two top cage groups.

Colorado City's Billy Simmons and Brady's Bobby Weise, two players who averaged better than 20 points per game, top the list of five cagers making up the first string. Others on the leading Class AA mythical group are Lynn Fabian of Winters, Dallas Christian of Stamford and Bobby White of Stephenville.

The second team is composed of Sonny Gibbs of Graham, James McGinnis of DeLeon, Jody Weidner of Stephenville, Charles Bridwell of Coleman and John Duke of Ballinger.

The first unit as a team averaged 80.2 points per game, while the second squad averaged 68.5 tallies.

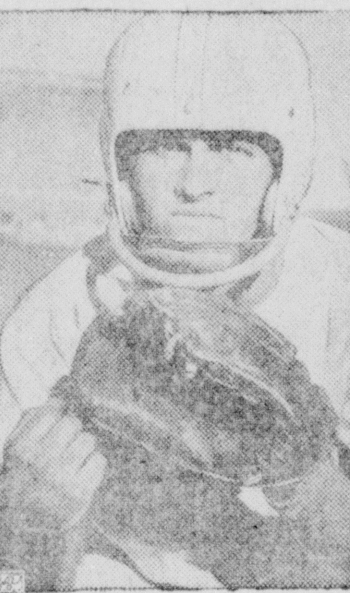

The 10 players were selected from more than 160 boys who participated on one of the 16 teams in West Central Texas playing in Class AA basketball.

Players were eligible from Winters, Ballinger, Coleman, Brady, Comanche, Lake View of San Angelo, Stephenville, DeLeon, Cisco, Graham, Mineral Wells, Breckenridge, Stamford, Hamlin, Anson and Colorado City.

Anson Man Wins Plymouth Prize for World Trip and $5,000

Announcement was made Tuesday night on a national news broadcast that Grady L. Flynt of Anson had been named second prize winner of lucky motor number sweepstakes sponsored by the Plymouth Motor Corporation. The Anson man had registered his entry in the contest at Prewitt Motor Company in Stamford.

When Dave Prewitt advised Flynt that he had won second prize of $5,000 in cash and a trip around the world for two, Flynt said, "I don't believe it." Later when Prewitt went with Flynt to the Anson Memorial Hospital, where Mrs. Flynt works, to advise her of the good news, she likewise was difficult to convince.

Grounds Readied For Rice Springs Rodeo at Haskell

Grounds are being placed in readiness and improvements are being made to the rodeo plant in preparation for the third annual Rice Springs Roundup, to be presented at Haskell May 17 to 19 under sponsorship of the Haskell Saddle Tramps. Jetty V. Clair Haskell, newspaperman, is president of the riding club.

The three-day show at Haskell is one of the first major rodeos of the season in this section, and each year since its beginning has attracted some of the top rodeo contestants in the Southwest.

The 1956 rodeo will be produced by Morris Stephens of Silverton, with seven major events being staged nightly in the Saddle Tramp arena. Included will be both bareback and saddle bronc riding, calf roping, sponsor's barrel race, Brahma bull riding, double mugging, and cutting horse contest. More than $2,000 in cash awards will be paid winners.

Colorful event on opening day will be a parade at 4:00 p. m. on Thursday, May 17. Twenty riding clubs and a number of high school bands from neighboring towns and cities have been invited to participate in this event.

Attractive trophies will be presented the three top riding clubs, with appropriate recognition also being given winning high school bands.

The Santa Rosa Riding Club of Vernon has been invited to lead the grand entry opening the first night performance.

Hamlin's Speedy Ken Hewett Places in Bluebonnet Relays to Give Team Eighth

By garnering three points in the annual Bluebonnet Relays played last week-end at Brownwood, Ken Hewett, runner from Hamlin High School, put this Northwest Jones County metropolis eighth in the rating of the 12 teams entered.

Hewett placed second in the 880-yard run close on the heels of Jim Parr of Amarillo, who set a time a 2:02.3 minutes for the event.

Coach Jim Herridge of the Hamlin delegation declares that his crews have run up against some of the toughest competition this year in area meets he has ever witnessed.

Brady took the Bluebonnet meet with 31 1/2 points. Brownwood was second with 28 1/2, while Amarillo and San Angelo tied for third with 21 points each. McCallum High School of Austin was fifth with 12 1/2. Coleman followed with 10. Ballinger had six, Hamlin three. Cisco netted two and Winters two points. Breckenridge was the area's only team failing to score. Amarillo High School's Billy Walker set a new record for the 440-yard dash in 49.8 seconds, and was awarded the R. D. Evans memorial trophy as the top athlete of the meet.

GINS CONTROL WORMS.
Value of the modern cotton gin as one of the effective means of controlling the pink bollworm has been pointed up by research done by the U. S. Department of Agriculture pink bollworm research laboratory at Brownsville. Gins utilizing elaborate equipment in the ginning process averaged killing more than 99 per cent of the pink bollworms.

Hamlin High School Netters Play in Big Time Meet at Dallas

Hamlin High School's doubles team of Perry Davis and Ted Wright last Tuesday defeated the Stamford tennis doubles unit by 6-0 and 6-4 scores.

The Hamlin netters took advantage of the long holiday season to enter the Dallas invitational tournament. The team of Davis and Don Hicks beat Garland's No. 1 team before losing to the second seeded team in the tournament. Others making the trip were Charles Green and James Lafler.

Thursday the boys and girls will journey to Abilene to fight for district honors. Ted Wright will play in the top singles in the senior division. Perry Davis and Don Hicks will be the senior doubles representatives.

Chris Green will vie for the junior singles crown in the district meet. Don Shivers and Lane Carmichael or James Lafler and Phillip Miller will be the junior doubles entry.

Libby Johnson will be the senior girls' entry. Carolyn Barnett and Peggy Killian will be the doubles team. Junior division girls players are as yet undecided.

Volley Ball Contests Set at Anson Tuesday

District volleyball contests of the Interscholastic League will be played next Tuesday afternoon, beginning at 1:00 o'clock, and Hamlin High School girls will be vying for honors, declares Dora Mitchell, coach of the group.

Hamlin girls entered in the meet are Jean Powell, Sandra Stuart, Janis Crowley, Elizabeth Norton, Eva Wallace, Mittie Ray, June Hill, Whynama Hayes, Louise Lakey, Jo Ann Hallums, Glenda Hill, Melba Osborne, Vivian Gilchrist, Molly Jones, Ann Carson, Ginger Rabjohn and Kay Meason.

Texas Cotton Farmers Can Plant More Acres Than Were Harvested Last Year

Cotton farmers of the Hamlin area and the rest of the state can plant more acres of cotton in 1956 than was harvested in 1955, if they make full use of the state's allotted acreage.

The Texas Stabilization and Conservation Committee points out that the 1956 cotton acreage allotted to Texas producers is 1,410,893 acres. Final figures released by the U. S. Department of Agriculture on the 1955 cotton crop shows that 6,860,000 acres were harvested in the state.

All farms in the state eligible for a cotton allotment have been assigned an acreage for 1956 plantings. The state committee urges all producers who do not intend to plant their allotted acreage to contact the local ASC office and return to the county committee any cotton acreage not to be planted. It can then be reallocated to producers in the county who have asked for additional acres. A final date has been set in each county for turning in the acres which will not be planted.

If the intentions not to plant are not known, and the acreage not reallocated, the county loses the acreage and the farm gets no credit on its historical base. Acreage can be returned on both a temporary and permanent basis.

A full explanation, says the state committee, can be obtained from the Jones County committee or from officials in the county ASC office at Anson.
